Five Star Occupational Health and Safety Audit

A quantified best-practice audit of your occupational health and safety management system, going beyond the requirements of ISO 45001.

What is it?

Provides a quantified outcome with detailed recommendations against a contemporary best practice specification (including the requirements of ISO 45001:2018) over and above current OHSMS standard requirements.

The audit specification model includes six best practice indicators which are continually assessed throughout the audit process:

- Leadership
- Stakeholder engagement
- Risk management
- Organizational health and safety culture
- Continual improvement

The audit goes far beyond the requirements of current health and safety management systems such as ISO 45001:2018. Undertaking this audit allows you to demonstrate your commitment to achieving excellence in health and safety standards to your employees, clients and other stakeholders.

We have now launched our 2023 specification you can request a call back and a member of our team will share the same with you.

Who is it for?

Organization's within any sector (of any size) who:

- a. require a status assessment of their current OHSMS against best practice
- b. require a structured route toward best practice status.

Why the audit is right for your organization?

The audit goes far beyond the requirements of current health and safety management systems such as ISO 45001:2018. Undertaking this audit allows you to demonstrate your commitment to achieving excellence in health and safety standards to your employees, clients and other stakeholders.

The audit also provides:

- External recognition of OHSMS to best practice standards.
- Demonstration to stakeholders and other interested parties (including regulatory bodies) of commitment toward health and safety.
- Structured route toward continual improvement and best practice standards.
- Verification and independent recognition of the effectiveness of your health and safety management system(s).
- A comprehensive audit report outlining the findings of the audit, quantified outcomes, associated areas of improvement with detailed recommendations.
- Potential for improved safety performance, workforce morale and wellbeing.
- Potentially reduced rates of accidents, injuries, ill-health, litigation costs and improved productivity.
- Certificate and logo can be used to demonstrate your success.
- Enhanced reputation and marketing opportunities.
